

K International Business Today

This is an interactive course which focuses on recent trend and developments of global companies mainly with a view to understanding their actual processes of management, strategies and corporate governance. The course aims to provide practical views and opinions of experienced business professionals in various industries (trading company, IT company, auto industry, glass manufacturing) through case studies in class which will surely be of high interest to students.